Dear Sir(s) Construction Products Regulation (CPR) – CE Marking

Dunbrik chimney flue liners and gas flue blocks have been assessed by BSI for compliance with the appropriate EN standard for product testing and for factory production control and are now covered by two BSI Assurance UK Ltd EC Certificates of Factory Production Control (FPC) dated 24 June 2013.

From Monday 1st July 2013 deliveries of Dunbrik chimney flue liners and gas flue blocks are covered by CPR Declarations of Performance and comply with the CPR / CE marking regulations, which are now mandatory for flue products.

Declarations of performance and BSI certificates are available on the Dunbrik website and can be emailed if required. Web page: www.dunbrikflues.co.uk/dunbrik_guides.asp
